BREED THEATER.

For today and tomorrow, the Breed theater will present one of its best programmes, headed by the remarks-ble western story, entitled "The Man from Dragon Land." It tells of a Chinese laundryman, who, being above the average in mental ability, is selected by a rough cowboy to write a letter to a pretty widow, the catch of the place. Rival cowboys, calling at the laundry for their linen, in order and refreshing hair dressing. It's the place with the widow discovery. to make a hit with the widow, discover the laundryman's letter, and believing he has dured to address a white wo-man in the friendly terms dictated by the cowboy, promptly drive him from takes refuge in the depths of the woods and before he has been discovered by the pursuing mob he hears cries of the pursuing mob he hears cries of distress and following them up comes upon the widow and her children surrounded by a pack of hungry woives. He succeeds in saving the little family, but the overpowering mob would have made way with him but for the intervention of the grateful widow. A strong detective story and a hean-riful Biograph drama are among the other attractions on this splendid bill, ream were served, In the evening the party adoursed to the hall, where with Miss Elizabeth Sullivan at the plane and Miss Mary Sullivan, violinist, music was furnish ed for dancing. There were also se-lections from the phonograph. This proved one of the most enjoyable soial gatherings in the neighborhood.

Guests of Sunday School Teacher. Mrs. Albert Sterry entertained her Sunday school class Wednesday afterweek, and is without doubt the very best act that has been brought here by the new management.

It is usually the case that in a team one of the performers will be found a little better than the other, but this is not the case in the Mozart act, two of the easiest, most natural character portrayers seen in years.

There is not a bit of doubt but that this act.

POETRY

THE BATHING BOT,

I saw him standing idly on the brim Of the quick river, in his beauty olad. So fair he was that Nature looked at him, And touched him with her sun-beams, here and there, So that his cool flesh sparkled, and his hair Blazed like a crown above the naked

And so I wept; I have seen lovely things. Maidens and stars and roses all and management and management and an another and another another and another anot

Till with a sudden grace of silver skin And golden lock he dived, his sons of joy Broke with bubbles as he bore them

And lo, the fear of night was or that place.
Till decked with new-found gems and flushed of face.
He rose again, a laughing, choking boy. -Richard Middleton.

Cease wondering why you came,

Stop looking for faults and flaws;
Rise up today in your pride, and say
"I am part of God's Great Cause!"
However full the world.
There is room for each carnest man
It had need of ME, or I would not beI am here to strengthen the plan."

VINDICATED AT LAST.

They say that woman loves to gab
And that the end she'll never reach.
But at that late Bull Moore confab
A woman made the shortest speech!
—-Kansas City Journal.
